Assistant or Associate Professor of Psychology

(Full-time tenure-track faculty position, anticipated for Fall Semester 2021)

POSITION TITLE: Assistant or Associate Professor of Psychology

JVA#: 2020-29

DEPARTMENT: Department of Social Sciences
School of Education, Humanities, and Social Sciences

POSITION SUMMARY: This is an appointment for a full-time tenure-track Assistant or Associate Professor of Psychology (with rank depending on qualifications). We seek a candidate with an earned Ph.D. in Psychology or closely related field who can teach a variety of Psychology courses. An ability to teach effectively using alternative modalities (e.g., on-line, video livestreaming, Moodle, etc.) in addition to a traditional classroom setting required. This position will work as a team member on undergraduate program development. Appointment anticipated to begin Fall semester 2021.

RESPONSIBILITIES: All faculty positions include a minimum of a 12-credit teaching load (may include online, web-based, or interactive video instruction and/or courses at off-campus locations), academic advising, as well as participation in school committees and College governance. The preferred candidate will be able to teach General Psychology, Lifespan Human Development, Introduction to Counseling, Social Psychology, Theories of Personality, Abnormal Psychology, Psychological Tests, and other courses as needed and qualified. The successful candidate will demonstrate evidence of the potential for excellence in teaching, and dedication to College and community service.

All faculty are expected to:

- Take a supportive interest in the academic progress of each of his/her students.
- Meet with his/her classes as scheduled. In case a faculty member is kept from his/her duties by illness or other legitimate reason, the faculty member must inform the respective Dean in advance, if possible, so that arrangements can be made for assignments or a substitute instructor.
- Maintain adequate office hours as assigned so that he/she may be available to the students for conferences to assist students toward achieving student success.
- Participate in the faculty-student advisory program.
- Keep abreast of his/her academic discipline through continuing study, and/or active participation of his/her professional organizations.
- Continuously strive to improve the effectiveness of his/her teaching.
- Keep accurate records of grades and other information required by the Deans, Registrar, Provost, President and any other administrator as may be appropriate.
- Attend all faculty meetings of the college and the respective school in which the faculty teaches.

- Attend commencement and convocations and to cooperate fully with the BSC Board of Governors, the President, the Provost and the Dean in promoting the interests of Bluefield State College and the respective School.

MINIMUM REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS: Applicants must have an earned Ph.D. in Psychology or closely related field (with degree conferred no later than 12/31/20). Experience in teaching Psychology courses at the college or university level is required. An ability to effectively use alternative modalities (e.g., on-line, video livestreaming, Moodle, etc.) in addition to teaching effectively in a traditional classroom setting is required.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: Background in Clinical or Counseling Psychology preferred. Experience teaching a variety of Psychology courses.

COMPENSATION: Salary is commensurate with qualifications and experience. Position is contingent upon available funding.

THE COLLEGE: The mission of Bluefield State College is to provide students an affordable, accessible opportunity for public higher education. A historically black institution, Bluefield State College prepares students for diverse professions, graduate study, informed citizenship, community involvement, and public service in an ever-changing global society.
