Instructor or Assistant Professor of English
(Full-time, tenure-track faculty position anticipated for Fall Semester 2022)

POSITION TITLE: Instructor or Assistant Professor of English

JVA #: 2021-31

DEPARTMENT: School of Education, Humanities, and Social Sciences

POSITION SUMMARY: This is a full-time, tenure-track, nine-month position at the level of Instructor or Assistant Professor (with rank depending on qualifications). We seek a candidate with a minimum of a Master’s degree required, and a Doctorate or ABD preferred, in English or closely related field, to teach transitional studies in English, developmental English, composition and sophomore level literature survey courses. An ability to effectively use alternative modalities (e.g., on-line, video livestreaming, virtual, Moodle) in addition to a traditional classroom setting is required. This position will work as a team member on undergraduate program development. Appointment anticipated to begin fall semester 2022.

POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES: All faculty positions include a minimum of 12 credit teaching load (may include web-based or interactive video instruction and/or courses at off-campus locations), academic advising, as well as participation in school committees and College governance. The successful candidate will demonstrate evidence of the potential for excellence in teaching, and dedication to College and community service.

All faculty are expected to:

- Take a supportive interest in the academic progress of each of his/her students.
- Meet with his/her classes as scheduled. In case a faculty member is kept from his/her duties by illness or other legitimate reason, the faculty member must inform the respective Dean in advance, if possible, so that arrangements can be made for assignments or a substitute instructor.
- Maintain adequate office hours as assigned so that he/she may be available to the students for conferences to assist students toward achieving student success.
- Participate in the faculty-student advisory program.
- Keep abreast of his/her academic discipline through continuing study, and/or active participation of his/her professional organizations.
- Continuously strive to improve the effectiveness of his/her teaching.
- Keep accurate records of grades and other information required by the Deans, Registrar, Provost, President and any other administrator as may be appropriate.
- Attend all faculty meetings of the college and the respective school in which the faculty teaches.
• Attend commencement and convocations and to cooperate fully with the BSC Board of Governors, the President, the Provost and the Dean in promoting the interests of Bluefield State College and the respective School.

MINIMUM REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS: Master’s degree in English or related field is required; prefer candidates enrolled in a Ph D program in English or a similar program, a MFA program or hold the terminal degree in English or a related area. Candidates must have at least 2 years of experience teaching English composition courses at the college or university level. Experience, training, and/or research in developmental English, transitional studies in English or first-year experience programs is also required. The candidate must also have a demonstrated ability to teach using distance education strategies including online courses and blended learning.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: Developmental Education Specialist and 2 years’ experience of teaching developmental English classes using best practices models. Understanding of strategies for the retention and success of first generation students is also preferred.

COMPENSATION: Salary and rank are commensurate with qualifications and experience. This position is dependent upon available funding.
