ENGLISH FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS (EFIS)

Bluefield State College's Office of International Initiatives invites applications from students around the world and newly arrived immigrants in the college's service area to enroll in its English for International Students (EFIS) program. This program is designed to help the language learner improve English proficiency in order to pursue an undergraduate degree at Bluefield State College. EFIS focuses on developing the language learner's competencies in listening, comprehension, speaking, reading, and writing English prior to being admitted into the college's academic degree programs.

Program highlights include: intensive English to prepare for university study; academic advising throughout the program; small classes which generally do not exceed 10 students; highly trained and experienced instructors; integrated access to all college facilities and events. Except Permanent Residents, au pairs, and CBYX students, all EFIS students, are required to stay in the student residence for the duration of the program for positive intercultural and language immersion experiences.

EFIS Academic Calendar: Basic EFIS courses are offered in the fall (mid-August – mid-December) and Summer Session I and Advanced EFIS courses are offered in the spring (mid-January-mid-May) and Summer Session II. EFIS students are also required to complete computer-based exercise drills.

Eligibility: EFIS is designed for English language learners who wish to study at Bluefield State College but who have not met the required TOEFL, IELTS, or Eiken test scores that Bluefield State College will accept for direct admission.

EFIS will accept students with paper based TOEFL scores of 450-499 or Internet based TOEFL scores from 55 - 60 or IELTS scores from 4 - 5 or EIKEN Grade 2 Level or GTEC CBT scores of 990-1095.

Non-college credit EFIS Courses:

20 hours per week of classroom instruction and computer-based drills covering the core skills of listening, speaking, vocabulary, grammar, reading, and writing.

EFIS students will enroll in the following non-college credit courses.

Fall Semester or Summer Session I:

EFIS 90:	BASIC LISTENING AND COMMUNICATION SKILLS
EFIS 91:	BASIC READING SKILLS
EFIS 92:	BASIC GRAMMAR
EFIS 93:	BASIC WRITING
