

Mr. Chris Crawford

Chris Crawford is Chief of Staff for Congressman Buddy Carter who represents the First District of Georgia. In this capacity, Chris serves as the Congressman's chief policy and political advisor while administering a staff of 15. Chris served in various roles on the staff of former Congressman Jack Kingston before joining Congressman Carter's staff including as associate staff to the House Appropriations Committee. A native of rural northeast Georgia, Chris grew up on the coast on Tybee Island and attended the University of Georgia where he studied international affairs. He is a rabid Georgia Bulldogs football fan even when they, on occasion, let him down.
