

Jessica Mier is a native of California and has lived in San Diego since 2008. Jessica is the District Director for Congresswoman Susan A. Davis (CA-53), where she directs all district activities and staff while overseeing and implementing policy objectives and strategies for the Congresswoman's district. Outside of her director responsibilities, Jessica is the lead staff member on border/immigration and Department of Homeland Security policy and issues with the Department of State, civil rights and public safety