

Bluefield State International Student Organization (ISO) to Participate in Community BBQ & Voter Registration Outreach

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 21, 2016

The Bluefield State International Student Organization (ISO) will participate this Sunday, September 25, 2016 from 2:00 to 6:00 p.m. in a Neighborhood Community Outing and Outreach at Pulaski Park (corner of Park St. and Pulaski St. in Bluefield, WV).

In addition to enjoying a free BBQ meal provided to all by Ridley Barbeque of Bluefield, participants will be able to meet local and state Democratic Party candidates running for office, have informal discussions with and express concerns to candidates, register to vote on site or obtain a mail-in registration form, learn about Early Voting in West Virginia and where one may vote early, and obtain assistance in locating your polling place.

For additional information, contact Deidre Guyton at 304.952.8288, Pete Sternloff at 304.887.5456, Floyd Graham at 304.910.2614, or Charkera Ervin at 304.952.8288 (your Mercer County Democratic Party Executive Committee District 1 Representatives).

This event is supported by a grant from the West Virginia South Central Labor Council, AFL-CIO.
