ISO Elects New Officers for 2017-2018 Academic Year

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 21, 2017

Final results from the BSC International Student Organization officer elections for the 2017-2018 academic year have been tallied, and the new ISO officers are as follows:

- President – Thais Nunes (from Brazil)
- Vice President – Jessie Rehwald (from Canada)
- Treasurer – Jelena Jevtić (from Serbia)
- Secretary – Sukai Gaye (from The Gambia)

Under the provisions of the ISO Constitution, the new officers will serve from August to May of the next academic year (Article IV, Section 2). As such, ISO officers elected this week will take office in August of 2017 and serve through May of 2018. Also, the President shall represent the organization before the Student Government Association (SGA) during the next academic year.

The last meeting of the ISO for the 2016-2017 academic year was held on April 17, 2017. The first meeting of the 2017-2018 academic year will be held on Monday, August 21, 2017 at 11:00 a.m. in the Greek Lounge of the Othello Harris-Jefferson Student Center on the Bluefield, WV campus.
