

Bluefield State College

West Virginia Legislative Internship Opportunities Information Session

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 4, 2018

An Information Session will be held on Thursday, October 11, 2018 in Room B107 (Basic Science Building) from 12:30-01:45 p.m. by representatives from the West Virginia Legislative Internship Office. All are welcome.

The West Virginia state legislature annually provides four internships for West Virginia college and university students. All internships are open to all college majors in West Virginia. Meals and hotel lodging are provided. The Frasure-Singleton Internship Program is a one-week program where interns will either work with a legislative committee or assist a WV Senate or House of Delegate member in their official duties. The Judith A. Herndon Fellowship Program is a full-semester program where students will be paired with a member of the state legislature throughout the duration of the program. The Legislative Information Journalism Internship will work with the Office of Reference & Information during the 60-day legislative session composing news releases, contribute to the weekly newsletter, provide cutlines and respond to media and citizen inquiries. For graduate students, there is the Walter Rollins Scholars Program and the Robert W. Burk, Jr. Student Intern Program, during the legislative session.

Applications for each internship are available at the following links:
