

Bluefield State College

BSC Students Attend 11th Annual HBCU Foreign Policy Conference

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 27, 2020

On Friday, February 14, 2020, seven BSC students—(left to right above) David Buss, Beverly Owensby Briggs, Shawn Hale, Natasha Littlejohn, Destinee Stephney, Lamont McCoy, and Adrian Edwards—and one faculty member, Dr. Colin S. Cavell, traveled to Washington, D.C. to attend the 11th Annual U.S. State Department Foreign Policy Conference. This year’s theme was “Cultivating a Culture of Diplomacy: Securing the Future of Foreign Policy.”

In addition to listening to a variety of presentations by U.S. State Department officers and diplomats about numerous career opportunities and make contacts with representatives from various U.S. government agencies, students were also able to meet and interact with their student counterparts from many other HBCUs from across the country.

BSC participation was facilitated by Interim Vice President for Community Engagement, Dr. JoAnn Robinson, and aided by the efforts of Dean of Students, Dr. Guy Sims.

Accompanying photos are for BSC publicity purposes only.

11th Annual U.S. State Department HBCU Foreign Policy Conference Group Photo

For additional information, contact Colin S. Cavell, Ph.D. at ccavell@bluefieldstate.edu or 304.327.4034.