*The special education endorsement was offered beginning in Spring 2017 so no candidates were taking exams until the Spring 2018 semester.

+These candidates are still taking PRAXIS exams. Students' results for this academic year will be tallied through August 31, 2018. Beginning in the fall, West Virginia policy states that all candidates must pass their exams prior to student teaching; therefore, a 100% pass rate is expected from that point forward.
