

In accordance with the Stop Campus Hazing Act (H.R. 5646) colleges and universities are required to prepare a Campus Hazing Transparency Report to be published twice a year. The report will disclose each incident for which a finding of responsibility for hazing was issued against a student organization that is institutionally recognized. The report will include:

- The name of the student organization
- A general description of the violation that resulted in a finding of responsibility, including:
 - Whether the violation involved the abuse or illegal use of alcohol or drugs;
 - The findings of the institution, and;
 - Any sanctions placed on the student organization by the institution, as applicable;
- The dates on which:
 - The incident was alleged to have occurred;
 - The investigation into the incident was initiated;
 - The investigation ended with a finding that a hazing violation occurred, and;
 - The institution provided notice to the student organization that the incident resulted in a hazing violation.
- The Campus Hazing Transparency Report cannot include personally identifiable information.

What is Hazing

A definition of Hazing can be found in the BSU Student Handbook on pages 38-39.

Reporting Hazing

Any faculty, staff, student, or volunteer of Bluefield State University, with knowledge or suspicion of hazing or other organization misconduct, is expected to report the activity to appropriate officials.
